Walker to Unveil Park's 100th Anniversary Tree Plaque

MILWAUKEE – County Executive Scott Walker will mark the 100th Anniversary of the Milwaukee County Parks by officially unveiling one of eleven commemorative bronze tree plaques this morning in Whitnall Park on the corner of College Avenue and Whitnall Park Road, just west of 92nd Street.

This year Walker and Parks Director Sue Black had over 100 new trees planted in parks throughout Milwaukee County. The commemorative tree plaques will be located at 11 different parks, including Brown Deer Park, Charles Hart Parkway, Euclid Park, Grant Park, Humboldt Park, Lindbergh Park, Milwaukee River Parkway, South Shore Park, Tiefenthaler Park, Walker Square Park and Whitnall Park. For more information go to countyparks.com or call the Parks Administrative Office at (414) 257-6100.
